Archbishop John thanked everyone for all the incredible work they are doing. It is the little things that help to sustain a routine. Keep things manageable, do not exhaust yourself.

SE asked if anyone had any questions

RP was asked by a pupil where is god in this situation. RP told the pupil that she wasn't sure. Her pupils are 10 years old.

Archbishop John advised he tries to keep responses simple, God has faced challenges and his challenges are never the end of the story. It's okay to not know the answer to something. Faith is believing in a context you don't fully understand.

Deacon Michael expressed his gratitude at the friendliness of neighbours and family in light of the current situation. Family who wouldn't normally speak are now communicating. When people pass in the street they are saying hello.

Elaine had a young person ask a similar question. Younger people tend to cut to the chase. They respond story telling. The application of scripture in story form. For pupils who have lost people through Covid, how well are chaplains prepared to deal with this. We must support one another.

SE we must look at liturgies to allow our children to have a voice and show hope. There is a project called Rainbows and remembrance. SE invited chaplains to participate. Se to send out details.

Kathleen uses the Labyrinth. Good for showing the journey and coming out with hope. They can be done with sand, shells or seeds.

SE asked for Kathleen to send over a link.

Archbishop John advised that if there is anything that can be done for the young people such a writing or answering questions.

Dympna asked if Archbishop could contribute to Yr 11s leaving message.

Jane Ireland advised that their Yr 11 and Yr 13s are finding it hard.

Paul suggested a personal message to each school on YouTube with a link.

Archbishop John suggested a message for each transitioning year rather than each school due to the number of schools we have.

SE asked if anyone has seen the UK blessing. Natalie has teamed up with SE to do a Southwark schools blessing. A letter will be sent out to all schools. A Mass will be organised to be aired in all schools.

SE led closing prayer.
