

MY LEGAL JOURNEY STEPHEN AKINSANYA LLB (HONS) BARRISTER

CHILDHOOD DREAMS

- At the age of 12 I had a dream to become a barrister after watching a popular television programme at the time, called Crown Court. I did not know what it entailed but I knew that I wanted to achieve this dream.
- There was no one portraying the role as barrister that looked like me but that was not my focus.

Be a moulder of dreams

Failure is part of the journey to success and prepares you for life in practice

- I overcame failure
- Run your own race
- Belief in you
- It's ok to fail
- See failure as delayed success
