

Welcome to the final edition of Flame our Religious Education and Spirituality newsletter for the 2021/22 academic year. May you all find the time and space to relax and refresh in the coming weeks. Like you, Flame will be back in September.

Creator God who breathed this world into being,
who is discernible within the harmony of nature,
the perfection of a butterfly's wing,
the grandeur of a mountain range,
the soaring eagle and humming bird, thank you for this world which you have created.
Thank you for summer sun,
which reminds us that your creative breath is still alive and active.
Thank you for the warmth of your love, sustaining this world, your garden.

Amen

A Little Book of British Saints

Aimed at younger readers with lovely illustrations by Michelle Pitt. This is a book of stories. True stories. Stories about remarkable saints who want to be your friends in heaven. Here you will find a peace-loving Viking and a saint who was captured by pirates. You will meet a horse dealer who was really a priest and a queen who became a nun. You can even read about a young saint who had lots of pets and played games on his computer. Details at <https://www.isaiahbooks.co.uk/product-page/a-little-book-of-british-saints>

Professional Development and Personal Formation

MA in Education: Religious Education

This programme is designed for anyone who is involved in the teaching of Religious Education (specialist and non-specialists), to support practitioners in all phases of schooling, whatever their location. The course seeks to develop knowledge, understanding and research skills in order to generate insights that transform professional practice in Religious Education. This MA is offered as a two-year part-time course, or a full time one year course. Modules are taught at St Mary's monthly on a Saturday (online is available). More information: <https://www.stmarys.ac.uk/postgraduate-courses-london/religious-education>
